Where She Returns to Herself

BECOMING is an intimate, all-inclusive retreat for women who are ready to stop performing and start living from the inside out.

Nestled on private wooded acreage in the Sierra Nevada foothills, this is your sanctuary to rest, reconnect, and remember who you've always been.

This retreat holds just 4 women. Two private rooms and one shared room are available, each space as intentional as the experience itself.

A Private Lodge. A Sacred Container.

Set in Mariposa, California, just outside Yosemite, our private lodge is where transformation happens. Think golden light through the trees, nourishing chef-prepared meals, energy healing, and deep sisterhood.
